Messrs. Earls and Sowles Selected as Grand Jurors.

DAGGETT'S CASE INVESTIGATED

Another Divorce Granted—An Attachment—
Mr. Vandercook Resigns as Warden—
The County Court Proceedings.

Judge Anderson and Judge Zane exchanged places yesterday morning, the former taking up the civil cases set for trial, while the latter proceeded with the equity calendar.

JUDGMENT FOR MORSE

In the case of M. V. Morse et al., vs. F. A. Gallagher et al., Judge Anderson gave judgment for the plaintiffs for $330.85.

THE DEFENDANT WINS

In the case of T. F. Roueche vs. J. W. Thornley, in which the plaintiff sued to recover $300, the jury returned a verdict for the defendant.

DISMISSED

The case of James E. Fulton vs. the Utah Nursery company was dismissed.

TIME TO PLEAD

In the case of S. Brinscher vs. Henry Wagner et al., five days additional time was allowed in which to plead.

SUBMITTED

The case of Mary S. McLaren vs. Henry Haynes was taken up, S. W. Darke appearing for the plaintiff and W. C. Hall representing the defendant. The plaintiff claimed in October, 1889, the defendant leased to her a piece of land in section 23, at the same time warranting it to be free from encumbrance. This property was afterwards found to be mortgaged, and the plaintiff sued to recover $1,000 damages for breach of warranty.

A FORGERY CASE

Prosecutor Stephens called up the Lowenthal case by asking that Lowenthal be released from custody. Lowenthal, it will be remembered, is the young man who was arrested some time ago on the charge of forging an endorsement to a check.

Mr. Stephens stated that the defendant was employed by H. M. Jones, and at his request his employer gave him a check in favor of a third party, charging the amount to Lowenthal. Instead of delivering the check, the latter kept it, but endorsed the name of the party in whose favor it was drawn upon it. Judge Anderson suggested that the grand jury would be in session all day, and as the case would probably come before that body, it would be as well to take no action.

THE GRAND JURY

As A. J. Kendall and Mr. Steel, of the grand jury, had been excused, Mr. Stephens suggested that their places be filled as soon as possible. In the afternoon, M. B. Sowles and J. A. Earls, who had been brought in on a special venire, were fully qualified to serve and were sworn in.

A JURY WAIVED

In the afternoon the case of Eugene F. Jones vs. Sarah H. Cannon, in which the plaintiff sued to recover $105.75 and costs, was taken up on appeal, and tried before the court, and judgment was rendered for the defendant.

CONTINUED

The case of the Old Jordan Mining company vs. the Niagara Mining company was reset for November 25.

BEFORE JUDGE ZANE

One More Divorce Granted—Equity Cases Continued.

Judge Zane took a turn at the divorce mill yesterday morning, but it turned out to be a commonplace case. The plaintiff was Mahala Darton Wright, who alleged that she was married to defendant, Benjamin Wright, in this city in 1875; that for nearly a year past he had failed to provide her with the necessities of life; that she was worth about $8,000, of which she asked for a share.

CONTINUED

The defendant made no appearance, and a decree of divorce was granted on the grounds of desertion with a portion of the property for her support.

POSTPONED

The hearing in the Blazard cases was postponed until November 28.

The case of William Hardman vs. W. J. Harvey et al. was continued.

SARAH A. CROWN vs. E. R. CLUTE; same order.

North Jordan Irrigation company vs. Mary Erickson et al.; same order.

WASATCH MINING COMPANY vs. WILLIAM JENNINGS et al.; same order.

Mountain Ice company vs. Salt Lake city; same order.

WARDEN VANDERCOOK RESIGNS

He Will Retire in a Few Days.

Quite a sensation was created yesterday when it became known that Oscar Vandercook, who has for a long time past been the warden of the penitentiary, had resigned. A HERALD reporter met Mr. Vandercook yesterday and asked him if the report that he had resigned was true.

"It is true that I am going to resign and have practically done so already," "When will you retire?"

"In a few days."

"What is the cause?"

"Well, we don't think alike," replied the warden, referring to the marshal, as he

THE GRAND JURY AT WORK.

The Daggett Case Comes Up for Investigation.

ROUTINE MATTERS ONLY WERE CONSIDERED—JUDGE BARTCH STILL ABSENT.

The grand jury resumed its labors yesterday morning after a month's vacation. One of the first cases to claim its attention was that of ex-City Detective Daggett, charged with attempting to rob Mr. Hall at the Hot Springs recently. After the witnesses had been examined, Daggett, who was waiting and anxious to make his statement, was informed that the jury inquirers did not care to hear him. The result will be made known in a day or two.

Another case investigated was that of Callahan, charged with robbery.

AT THE HARVEST OF DEATH.

Much grain is prematurely reaped by the scythes of disease that might have ripened to a golden maturity if "minor" troubles had been attended to in time. Nothing is truer than this—bodily ailments not only grow apace, but beget one another. Thus biliousness, constipation, dyspepsia follow close on the heels of one another, flourish together, the one perpetuating the other, and begetting a numerous progeny of later ailments more or less dangerous as their cause is more or less disregarded and neglected. Incontinent rheumatism, malaria and "slight" inactivity of the kidneys, of what dire disaster they are the cause when not brought to light by the physician's early warning. Check these "minor" ailments with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters and forestall the inexorable reaper, who exacts the forfeiture of life as the penalty for dis regarding the means of preserving it.

CAPTURED.

A Colorado Sheriff Spots a Tough in Salt Lake.

He is Young, of Good Birth and Well Educated, but a Hardened Criminal Withal.

With the assistance of Sheriff Burt and his deputies, Sheriff Stewart, of Canon City, Col., has just succeeded in making a very important arrest in this city.

On the 9th of September last a young man, who gave his name as William Payne, was brought to this city from Green River. He was suffering from a gunshot wound in his foot, and he claimed to have accidentally inflicted it himself at Green River the day before. At his own request he was taken to the Sisters' hospital, and the physicians found it necessary to amputate the foot.

The operation was successfully performed, and Payne was soon able to be out. He insisted, after his recovery, that the operation was unnecessary, and consulted with Attorney Ritchie & Ritchie with a view to instituting a suit for damages for malpractice. He made the Paragon saloon, opposite the postoffice, his headquarters, and soon became popular with the habitués of the place. Payne was the possessor of a fine baritone voice, and his singing proved quite an attraction to the place. The people who met him plied his misfortune, and imagined him one of the mildest and most harmless of men.

A few days ago Sheriff Stewart arrived here, and he called upon Sheriff Burt. The Colorado official stated that on August 2nd last three prisoners confined in the Canon City jail overpowered the jailer, locked him up in a cell and ESCAPED.

The men were William Parry, a young Welshman charged with burglary and assaulting a woman, Robert Eldridge, alias Tom Watson, charged with burglary and petit larceny, and G. W. Boyd, charged with burglary. A short time afterwards the Rio Grande train was held up, and the three Canon City crooks were supposed to have done that daring job. Eldridge was captured a short time ago and is now in jail at Denver.

From information elicited from Sheriff Stewart concluded that the other two men were in this vicinity, and to capture them was the object of his trip. He furnished the deputy marshals with a good description of Parry, and G. W. King soon spotted Payne as the man although he was sailing under an assumed name and was minus a foot. He was arrested on Friday last, but as Sheriff Stewart expected to capture Boyd here, the matter was kept very quiet, and the closest search was made for the other man.

It was soon found that Boyd was not in this city, and the sheriff went to Ogden, but returned to this city yesterday without bagging his game.

A HERALD reporter met Sheriff Stewart yesterday afternoon and asked him if he had good reason to believe that Parry, or Payne, was one of the trio who HELD UP THE RIO GRANDE TRAIN last September.

"I have," replied the sheriff, "and one of his companions is now in Denver on that charge. This man Parry, another young, is a hard character. I had even two serious charges against him when he escaped."

"How do you suppose he got shot?"

"I think he was shot when holding up the train, and made his way to Wyoming. He is a Welshman by birth and came to Colorado to look after an estate left by his father. He is well educated, of good address and an excellent musician, but for all that, is about as hard a character as you can find."

Sheriff Stewart left last night with his prisoner for Canon City well pleased with his capture, and grateful to the sheriff's men for the assistance.

Makes the Weak Strong

The marked benefit which people in run down or weakened state of health derive from Hood's Sarsaparilla, conclusively proves the claim that this medicine "makes the weak strong." It does not act like a stimulant, imparting fictitious strength from which there must follow a reaction of greater weakness than before, but in the most natural way Hood's Sarsaparilla overcomes that tired feeling, creates an appetite, purifies the blood, and, in short, gives great bodily, nerve, mental and digestive strength.

Fagged Out

"Last spring I was completely fagged out. My strength left me and I felt sick and miserable all the time, so that I could hardly attend to my business. I took one bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and it cured me. There is nothing like it." R. C. BROOKER, Editor Enterprise, Belleville, Mich.

"I derived very much benefit from Hood's Sarsaparilla, which I took for general debility. It built me right up, and gave me an excellent appetite." Dr. JENKINS, Mt. Savage, Md.

N. B. If you decide to take Hood's Sarsaparilla do not be induced to buy anything else instead. Insist upon having
